OUR PRACTICE

Burzillo are designers of visual explanations and information presentation tools to Indigenous Australia. Burzillo is the design arm of Burdon Torzillo, consultants to Indigenous Australia.

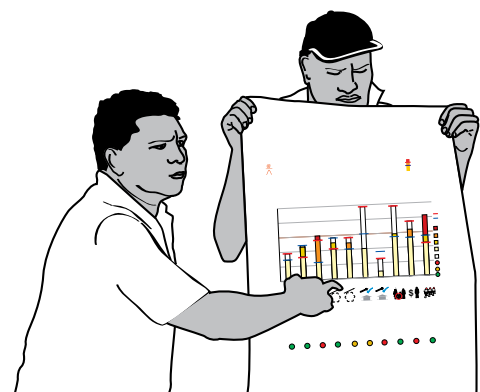

The 'Tracker' suite of management and governance tools are designed to produce intuitive visual explanations of a range of critical information. Corporate compliance, governance, financial management, strategic planning, health and well being tools have been developed based on over 20 years of practical field experience.

CHALLENGE

To ensure key stakeholders and decision makers have a clear and shared understanding of the information and issues at hand and are equipped to make sound and informed decisions.

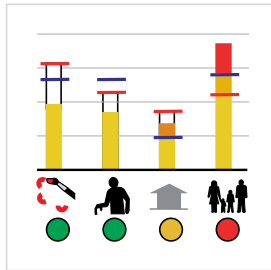

SUCCESS

Information, properly understood imparts knowledge, improves understanding and decision making. This enables corporations to monitor and improve their performance and deliver better outcomes.

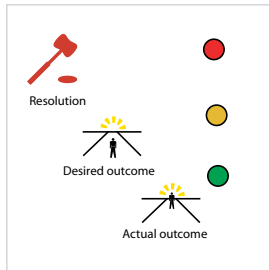

All Tracker software can be provided as a licensed installation or Burzillo can process your data and provide you with the reports.
